- Sanitation for All
- Solid Waste Management
- Hygiene Promotion
- Behavioral Change
- Involvement of Citizens

Event Description

The Swachh Bharat Mission (SBM), launched on October 2, 2014, by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, is one of India's largest cleanliness and sanitation campaigns aimed at transforming India into a clean, hygienic, and open-defecation-free nation. It is an ambitious national initiative designed to improve sanitation and promote cleanliness across the country by focusing on waste management, sanitation, and hygiene practices at the community, institutional, and individual levels.

The mission was launched on the 145th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, inspired by his vision for a cleaner India. The primary goal of the mission is to eliminate open defecation, promote solid waste management, and foster an increased awareness about hygiene and sanitation practices among the people of India.

Outcomes of Swachh Bharat
