Objective of the Event:

- *To provide insights on how to motivate and encourage employees effectively.
- *To prepare students for future leadership roles in their careers.

Event Description:

DACC hosted an informative guest lecture for all students on July 4, 2023, on "Leadership Skills: Motivating and Encouraging Employees." The distinguished speaker, Ms. Swati Narwal, Chief of IKEA, kicked off the event at 11:30 AM. In order to inspire and motivate team members in any organizational context, Ms. Narwal concentrated on teaching fundamental leadership qualities.

Ms. Swati Narwal offered insightful commentary and useful tactics on how to lead effectively. She emphasized the significance of comprehending the requirements of employees, establishing specific objectives, and cultivating a healthy work atmosphere. The importance of support, acknowledgment, and communication in fostering employee engagement and motivation was emphasized.

Due to her significant contribution to the event, Secretary Dr. Swati Narwal graced the session with her presence.

Ms. Swati Narwal was congratulated by Sagar Balwadkar for her significant contribution to the occasion.

Interactive conversations and real-world examples that demonstrated the influence of effective leadership on team performance and organizational success kept students interested. They gained a greater understanding of the difficulties and benefits of leadership from the talk, and they also left with skills and methods to use in their future managing positions.

Learning Outcome:

- Getting ready to manage leadership positions and duties in their future professions
- Enhanced comprehension of essential leadership abilities needed to inspire and uplift staff members
- A deeper understanding of methods for engaging employees and communicating effectively
- Useful advice for establishing a constructive and encouraging work atmosphere
- Getting ready to manage leadership positions and duties in their future professions

Objectives:

The purpose of the seminar was to help students understand the corporate hiring process and the core skills required for a seamless transition from education to the job.

Event Description:

On July 21, 2023, Mr. Milind James, Director of Talent Next, gave a talk at a DACC workshop on the subject of "Campus to Corporate." The session began in the training seminar Hall at eleven in the morning. Mr. James shared his extensive knowledge, focusing on the tools and processes corporates utilize to evaluate job applicants. Among the primary subjects he covered in his speech were

- Business instruments such as group discussions (GD), personal interviews, and aptitude exams;
- thorough descriptions of every instrument and how candidates are assessed using it;
- The need of skill development and enhancement to satisfy business requirements;
- Strategies for students to effectively get ready for and do well on these tests

Learning Outcome:

The corporate hiring process, including the various tools used by companies to evaluate candidates, was better understood by the students. They learned how important it is to possess specific skills to increase their employability and productivity in professional environments. The program helped students transition from college to the job by providing them with helpful information and coping strategies.

Objectives:

The primary goal of the information learned in guidance sessions was to close the knowledge gap between the theoretical and practical skills needed for professional work in classrooms. By giving a thorough rundown of the procedures, the seminar sought to get students ready for their Summer Internship Program (SIP).

Event Description:

Under the direction of Professor Iftekhar Khan, we held a guidance session on the Summer Internship Program on July 21, 2023. The purpose of the seminar was to give students crucial advice on how to approach their internships successfully. Professor Khan highlighted the crucial phases that students should go through during their SIP, including as

Selecting the internship's employer

- Getting their academic guide's consent for the scope

Obtaining a letter of joining from the organization

- Performing desk or field research
- Sending their mentor weekly work reports
- Outlining the goals and subject of the study

Identifying the sort of research

- Creating the sample and determining its dimensions
- Creating an authorized survey
- Gathering feedback reports causes the business to be fired.

Learning Outcome:

Students acquired a thorough understanding of the procedures needed to finish their seminar internship program. They learned how to find and contact businesses, plan and carry out research, and efficiently record their results and advancements. Students left this session with the skills they needed to move from academic knowledge to real-world application in a professional setting.

Objective:

- To provide students a clearer picture of how taking chances can lead to success.
- Providing students with the resources they require to manage their own careers.
- To encourage students to trust their intuition and identify areas in which they need to develop their abilities.

During a guest session that DACC arranged with the theme "Understanding Risk to succeed," Ms. Sambrita Das Banerjee, Project Manager at Philips India Limited, spoke. With an emphasis on the value of risk management for professional progression, Ms. Banerjee shared her knowledge and experiences. She covered a range of subjects during the session, including career pathways. Developing leadership skills and making decisions based on intuition. Ms. Banerjee stressed the importance of proactively identifying and filling skill gaps and urged students to embrace risk-taking as a catalyst for both professional and personal growth.

Key Learning Outcomes:

1. Better Decision-Making: People and organizations can make more strategic and well-informed decisions by recognizing, analyzing, and assessing risks.
2. Improved Safety and Security: By lowering possible risks, risk management techniques help to create a more secure and safe atmosphere.
3. Financial Stability: By foreseeing possible risks and creating mitigation plans, effective risk management can reduce monetary losses.
4. Enhanced Resilience: Businesses become more resilient to unforeseen circumstances and interruptions, guaranteeing company continuity.
5. Regulatory Compliance: Comprehending and controlling risks aids in abiding by pertinent laws and regulations and preventing fines.
6. Reputation Management: By averting unfavourable events and exhibiting accountability, effective risk management may safeguard and improve an organization's reputation.

Subject: Appreciation Letter for Seminar on "Importance of Marketing"

Dear Sir,

On behalf of Dnyansagar Arts and Commerce College we extend our heartfelt gratitude to Vikas Jagtap for delivering a highly informative and engaging seminar on the "Importance of Marketing". Your expertise and deep understanding of marketing principles, strategies, and emerging trends provided valuable insights that will undoubtedly benefit our students in their academic and professional journeys.

The session on how marketing drives business success, customer engagement, and brand development was both enlightening and thought-provoking. Your practical examples, real-world case studies, and in-depth discussions on the role of digital marketing and consumer behaviour have equipped our students with the knowledge and tools necessary to thrive in the marketing field.

We also appreciate the active participation of all attendees, whose questions and contributions enriched the seminar, making it an interactive and dynamic learning experience.

Once again, thank you for your participation. We look forward to seeing you achieve your career goals and hope to welcome you to future seminars and events.

Warm regards,
